PART 1: Review Comments

	Reviewer's comment	Author's comment (if agreed with reviewer, correct the manuscript and highlight that part in the manuscript. It is mandatory that authors should write his/her feedback here)
Compulsory REVISION comments
Minor REVISION comments	This is a good and important study, which discuss the common issues of infectious diseases in refugee camps. There are minor spellings and grammatical errors; the author is advised to send the manuscript for proofreading. 1) Line 12: Inappropriate word; Faecal samples were aseptically collected??? 2) Line 29-32: These statements are unnecessary: Helminthes also known as parasitic worms, they are large macroparasites characterised by elongated, flat or round bodies (Castro, 1996). Protozoan parasites are microscopic, one-celled organisms that are only able to multiply in the human body (Haque, 2007). 4) Line 124: Administrative Clearance change to Ethical Clearance 3) Line 241-245: These two statements are confusing, please rephrase; "The high prevalence of human gastrointestinal parasitic infections in this study is unconnected with the fact that the socio-economic and environmental conditions of the IDPs enhance transmission of the parasitic agents". "This report is a strong indicator that faecal contamination is prevalent in the camp environment due to poor sanitation and improper waste disposal".	Thank you for your useful and thoughtful comments and suggestions. All were noted and corrected accordingly.
