Compulsory REVISION comments	The objectives of the paper are <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• one to understand the hair fall in monsoon and</li> <li>• to reduce the hair fall.</li> </ul> The first objective justification is not clear as there is no comparison done in any other season. Without comparing in other seasons we cannot conclude that the hair fall observed is high. I suggest to observe and provide data for another season to establish the hair fall is high in monsoon. Give justification for the same. The second objective is justified and fine.
Minor REVISION comments
