Compulsory REVISION comments	This manuscript is well writing. However its need some improvement The introduction requires many more references “The value of plasma glucose decreases significantly at different temperatures and at different time intervals. (Table 1)” The values of p as positioned in table 1 do not make it possible to understand what the authors compare. Is it at different temperatures or at different time intervals? For table 1 the authors are requested to specify the statistical test used, pleased
Minor REVISION comments	Figure 3 on the ordinate axis, add (mg / dL) Keywords are usually arranged in alphabetical
