Compulsory REVISION comments	The authors have described an interesting case of Purtcher retinopathy secondary to acute pancreatitis. I have following comments for the authors: 1. Please clarify the meaning of hydrocholecystis and angiocholitis and replace them with appropriate English words. 2. Please replace the sentence 'retrograde cholecystectomy under laparoscopy for a stone gallbladder' by 'laparoscopic cholecystectomy for gallstones'. 3. Why was the hospital stay of 10 days after cholecystectomy? 4. There are several grammatical and typographical mistakes throughout the manuscript such as the spelling of performed, gallbladder, eyeu, etc. in the case description.
