Compulsory REVISION comments	I think that this manuscript is not well written in English and the contents. Most importantly, the contents in section 2 and section 3 are the existing knowledge in the textbook, so the author should cite the references. Section 4 is the main result of this manuscript, but there are many spelling mistakes in English. Now I point out some of them in the pdf file, please find them. And I hope that tthe authors should check you English and the details of your own paper because the aim of your paper is to benefit a lot of readers. So it must be readable and innovative in some extent. I wonder why it is not cited in the manuscript which is listed in the References? This is not allowed in the most of the Journal. May be the authors is a new researcher and this is the first time to write the research paper.
