

Editor's Comment:

In my point of view, it informs in the M&M about the initial weight of the fish, as well as the evaluated period, 12 weeks. So, it is essential to insert the animals' weight at the end of the test, exactly because it was at the end that there was, in fact, the biochemical analysis presented in the article.

Editor's Details:

Dr. Matheus Ramalho de Lima
Professor, Federal University of South of Bahia, Brazil.