

Editor's Comment:

There are many gaps in the study.

Firstly authors did not establish any relationship between relapse of Nephrotic Syndrome and Filariasis, all the patients tested negative to screening for Filariasis.

Secondly improvement of the patients can't necessarily be ascribed to the use of DEC since they were also on other therapies. A randomized controlled study will be necessary to make such conclusions and recommendations.

There are other identifiable gaps.

Editor's Details:

Dr. Ejeliogu, Emeka Uba

Associate Professor, Department of Paediatrics, University of Jos, Jos University Teaching Hospital, Nigeria