Compulsory REVISION comments
Minor REVISION comments	In the starting of the article the author used a word "SM" for referring Social media and however she mentioned the full form after a few paragraphs (After using it many times) so I advise her to mention the full form of word "SM" in the starting of the article as it may create confusion for the readers. Also in the introduction part the third line has boring word written twice and should be removed. In the third point of the article under Utilization of SM/SNSs as an e-recruitment source: The motivations, the sub- point "Tentative predictor of potential employee's personality and person-job fitness" the word tentative needs to be changed as it doesn't fit into the explanation properly. In the conclusion the line "However, utilizing social media instead of the traditional methods can be as well problematic." Needs to be checked again by the author as it doesn't makes a proper sense after reading.
