PART 1: Review Comments

	Reviewer's comment	Author's comment (if agreed with reviewer, correct the manuscript and highlight that part in the manuscript. It is mandatory that authors should write his/her feedback here)
Compulsory REVISION comments	English needs to be improved obligatory. Now it is very difficult to understand the main message that authors want to say to the readers. Especially, in part Material and methods. Please, use the right verb tense for each part of manuscript. The presentation of the results with present combination of tables and figures is not appropriate. First, in the tables there is not specified the period when the data is obtained. Is it 12th week? Please, specify. Among figures, only two are representative – Fig.2 and 4 where we can see the differences on the each week. The figures 1 and 3 bring no more information than it is already presented in the tables. They should be removed. Please, put errors bar for each point on the selected figures. They will reflect the statistic of the results on each point (week) of measurement. Please, rewrite the conclusion. Precise, which hormones affected pesticide and which hormones significantly protected ginger.
Minor REVISION comments	fayrouz et al²². -change the first letter to upper and remove dot CONCLUTION – change to conclusion decrese - change to decrease Image 1, 2 – rename to figure1,2 and reorder the figure numbers through whole article results of Toft - add the citation number reference (22) – provide the title of journal and year of publication
Optional/General comments	The investigated topic is interesting and actual. The article provides a new knowledge of ginger protective effect against toxicity of insecticide dimethoate. The used methods are robust and the obtained results are statistically significant.
