Optional/General comments	The study revealed that some circumstances make women insecure and the ways by which women experience insecurities differ from person to person. However, in this study one of the insecurities which ranked high is offensive work environment. The offensive work environment does not necessarily refer to professional career environment, rather it could refer to home, work place and other places. The researcher, while doing the survey, had a recent example which shows how women experience insecurity inside and outside the work place and timing .
