Compulsory REVISION comments	This manuscript briefly reviewed the application of radiotherapy in the management of desmoid tumors. This manuscript has some limitations which showed as following: 1. The content of this manuscript is too simple. The author should list tables and/or figures to introduce results of studies in detail. 2. In the section of "Technical aspects of radiotherapy", the content was too simple. Radiotherapy method, fractionated dose and target volume delineation should be described in here. Similar problems were existed in other sections. 3. In general, many works are needed to improve this manuscript.
Minor REVISION comments	The grammar expression maybe more appropriate. Such as "Place of exclusive radiotherapy", "This rate increases from 41% to 75% in the case of combined treatment (p = 4.10-10)"....
Optional/General comments
