Compulsory REVISION comments	My suggestions for the minireview are as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - review the abstract: there are several translation errors and I would change the initial sentence. - the minireview is a bit too concise. I would recommend expanding a few paragraphs to at least 3000 words. - I recommend reviewing the wording of some unclear sentences and reviewing English. - I would add something else in the conclusions or in any case I would describe them in a discursive manner and not with a bulleted list. Overall, this minireview responds to the set goal, which is to provide a synthetic picture of some alternative fuel to oil as a necessity for the reduction of CO₂.
