PART 1: Review Comments

	Reviewer's comment	Author's comment (if agreed with reviewer, correct the manuscript and highlight that part in the manuscript. It is mandatory that authors should write his/her feedback here)
Compulsory REVISION comments	Missing reference in text. The study uses IE abbreviation with no explanation to what it means.
Minor REVISION comments	The problem statement does not clearly define the concept/strategy relevant to the study in the introduction.
Optional/General comments	The topic is current considering the significant importance of improving Productivity efficiency for competitive advantage. Specifically, the paper intends to identify the DMAIC process influence strategy towards sustainable Productivity improvement in the semiconductor industry. The paper is built on well-known theories in the field and easy to follow, however the current literature is not cited in text. The author/s identified the dependent variables and the independent variable well enough, which helps address the influential issue. The empirical analysis consists of extracting existing data and performing statistical evaluation of the contributing factors. Consideration should be given to include DMAIC in the title of the study.
